

CEF Summer Missions

What's Involved?

Getting Started

- Make sure you are qualified. Are you ...
 - A child of God by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone?
 - Obedient to the Lord?
 - In full agreement with our statement of faith & willing to comply with our policies?
 - Age 15+ (Assistants may start @ 14.)
- Is it God who wants you to do this???
- Contact us to get an application form.
- If accepted, discuss salary with Nancy or Don. They help you raise necessary funds.
- Seek prayer and financial supporters.
- Do pre-training work.
- Returning missionaries help newer missionaries and may apply to help at training school.

CYIA Training School

June 13-21, 2008 our missionaries go to training school near Chambersburg to be trained by CEF; then return home to do supervised practice clubs for a week. This training is not easy, but is some of the best anywhere. Since students must prove they can lead the club and teach according to our high standards, they must be willing to keep trying – our staff does. Note: you may need to use educational absence days to attend.

Serving

After graduation begin summer ministries around Centre & southern Clinton Counties.

5-Day Club®

- One hour a day for a week - in living rooms & under trees. 3 clubs± per day.
- Share the gospel through songs, learning games, Bible lessons, missionary stories, challenges, etc. Sometimes we add ½ hour for friendship building & games.
- Team members share the work, pray when they can and find ways to help each other.
- Get to the next club on time, but not before you let the kids hug you.

Good News Adventure Camp

- Help kids learn and have fun.
- Keep them safe.
- Get them to the right place on time.
- Interview each child about salvation.
- Help with games, sports clinics & handcraft.

Grange Fair Ministry

- Last week of August – Thurs to Thurs.
- Use face painting and other ways to share the gospel with hundreds of kids.

Next Fall

- Look back and see ...
 - You have been part of His miracles & have seen Him answer prayer.
 - You have fallen flat, but found God to be enough.
 - You have watched Him rescue kids from sin.
 - You became a servant of God.
 - God has changed you.
 - You have experienced a purpose-filled summer.
- Perhaps you will join others from our area who have gone on to serve the Lord as leaders, pastors, missionaries, Christian writers, etc. – Beth, Matt, Jodi, Melody, Hannah, Danna, Tim ...

Who's Who?

- Nancy Cone – Dynamic, high energy and involved. She leads many ministries and works most closely with our missionaries after training school. cefcentre@juno.com
- Don Colburn – Quiet or loud, he doesn't lead many kids to Christ, but people around him do. doncolburn@pennswoods.net
- Marie Fishburn – Compassion in a dress. You may see a tear, but not her back – a great model. fishfishburn2@juno.com

CEF Summer Missions

Please don't apply

... Unless

GOD calls you personally.

- Has He convinced you that this is His plan for this summer?
- Is what God wants more important than what you want?
- Has he given you a love of children?
- How important is it to you that Jesus rescues them?
- You will be attacking Satan's stranglehold. Are you ready for his counterattack?
- Are you willing and able to
 - Learn how?
 - Make this your top priority?

As a CEF[®] summer missionary you will help to rescue children. Because of you, some will trust Jesus, be forgiven and become God's own children. As followers of Jesus, they can have a life of joy and purpose in a world that cries out for it.

How can you do the impossible?

Paul answers that beautifully.

- 1 Thessalonians 5:24 - Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.
- 2 Cor.3:5- ... our competence comes from God. (NIV)

Is God calling YOU to teach and demonstrate how to follow Christ, including how you deal with your own struggles?

If so, reaching kids must take priority over typical concerns of teens, including a summer job. You MUST believe Jesus when He said, "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." (Matt 6:33 NIV)
