God's kind of love is caring and getting involved. People need to be rescued from their sin by a miracle that God performs when they give up being good enough and rely on Christ instead. God's Holy Spirit starts to live in them and they cease to be Satan's followers and become children of God. That will show up in their behavior as they seek God and begin to agree with Him more and more. That is what repentance is all about.

When we believers stop thinking we have to be good enough, smart enough and skillful enough, God can use us to do the impossible (2 Corinthians 12:9). By teaching these truths, your friend can know what they need to begin their life with God. You, an ordinary believer, can see them rescued when God convinces them of these truths and they call on Jesus (Romans 10:13).

Cut out the long strip & fold it on the short lines, put it in your pocket and pray a lot for someone you care about.
